Football star up on drug charge

UNITED STATES: Former NFL quarterback Ryan Leaf has been arrested on suspicion of burglary, drug possession and theft, officials said.
The arrest came just weeks after Leaf, 35, finished radiation treatment stemming from surgery to remove a benign brain tumour. He was on probation from drug charges he faced in Texas three years ago when he was arrested in Montana. He is due in court today to face the charges.
